

Pouring Tea: Black Gay Men of the South Tell Their Tales

Dr. E. Patrick Johnson, a preeminent scholar in queer studies, black queer performance, and the intersections of race, sexuality, and gender in performance, will be on campus to perform a piece based on his book Sweet Tea: Black Gay Men of the South—An Oral History. His moving performance spotlights the oral histories of black gay men who were born, raised, and continue to live in the South and who range in age from 19 to 93.

WHEN: Saturday, February 2, 2013 at 7:30

WHERE: Tyler-Tallman Hall

Presented By: GSA, Education Department, BSC, Multicultural House, and Gender and Sexuality Studies Department

